

DIVISION 7

APPENDIX B

Case Name _____

Case No. _____

Joint Statement of Issues Remaining to be Tried

In using this form counsel are to circle those issues remaining to be tried:

- A. Child Custody
- B. Child Visitation
- C. Amount of Child Support
 - 1. Net income of (Petitioner) (Respondent) disputed
 - 2. Extraordinary circumstances disputed
- D. Spousal Support
 - 1. Term
 - 2. Amount
 - a. Supported Spouse's ability to earn
 - b. Amount of Supporting Spouse's income
 - c. Willful refusal to work
- E. Division of Property
 - 1. Family Residence
 - a. Disposition – sale or retention
 - b. Value
 - 2. Pension
 - a. Brown formula or assignment to one spouse
 - b. Value
 - 3. Family Business
 - a. Good Will Value
 - b. Other _____
 - 4. Household Furniture

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

- 5. Automobiles
- 6. Other _____

F. Character of Property

- 1. Separate Property Claim by (Petitioner) (Respondent) in:
 - a. House
 - b. (Bank Accounts) (Securities) (Pension) (Business)
(Other) _____
-

G. Credits and Charges

- 1. Claim that (Petitioner) (Respondent) should be charged for:
 - a. Misappropriation
 - b. Funds Utilized (during marriage) (after separation)
 - c. Other _____
- 2. Claim that (Petitioner) (Respondent) should be credited with:
 - a. Community Property debts paid from separate property
 - b. Other _____

H. Other Issues as Follows

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____

We certify that we have met and conferred in good faith and that those issues identified above are the only remaining issues yet to be tried. The contentions of the parties relative to the remaining issues are set forth in our respective trial briefs which have been previously served and filed in accordance with Rule 705.

Date: _____

Attorney for Petitioner

Attorney for Respondent

Attorney for Claimant

(Adopted effective January 1, 1987; revised eff. July 1, 1994; revised eff. January 1, 2007)